A Short History

Established by the Historical Society in 1989 to preserve Tewksbury through artwork exclusively depicting Tewksbury Township subjects, the "Tewksbury Art Show" has expanded its scope while retaining its original spirit. The show encompasses juried, small works and portfolio Areas..

Jurors

Judge of Selection: Joel Tidey

Joel studied at The Art Institute of Philadelphia and continued his studies at The New York Art Students League in New York City. His work has been exhibited throughout the tri-state area and abroad. His time is spent creating new projects and teaching at The Visual Arts Center of New Jersey and at the Joe Kubert School in Dover, New Jersey. Joel has been the recipient of The Martin Hannon Memorial Award (The Salmagundi Club's Thumb-box Exhibition) and recently exhibited works at the Visual Arts Center of New Jersey "Guide Ropes and Wires" Exhibition.

Judge of Awards: Andrea Gianchiglia

Andrea Gianchiglia, local artist of Califon, New Jersey, graduated from the Hartford Art School receiving her BFA in illustration with a minor in art history. Andrea works as a full time artist with private commissions, as well as an art instructor at various art facilities in New Jersey. She teaches both adults and children at the Visual Art Center of New Jersey, The Center for Contemporary Art, The Hunterdon Art Museum and conducts private lessons and workshops. Andrea is also a Craftsyt (on line tutorials) instructor and was flown out to Denver Colorado to film an online class titled, "The Art of Painting Horses." She is also a member of the Society of Animal Artists, The Pastel Society of America, The Salmagundi Club, and The Catherine Lorillard Wolfe Art Club. Andrea is represented by Studio 7 Fine Art Gallery in Bernardsville, NJ.
