

The Tewksbury Historical Society

Post Office Box 457

Oldwick, NJ 08858

ORDER FORM

TEWKSBURY AFGHANS

$ 45 each

100 % cotton, machine washable afghans, made in the USA, contains images of buildings and scenes from across Tewksbury and from its historic villages and hamlets.

Colors available: Williamsburg blue, Cranberry & Hunter Green

TEWKSBURY ART SHOW NOTECARDS

$ 15 pack

Ten cards each with a color photo showing a scene from an artist painting. The works are from artists who won awards in the 2001 and 2002 art shows. Cards are blank inside and have name of scene and artist on rear of card. Each pack has one of each winner and includes 10 envelopes.

CHURCHES NOTECARDS

$ 15 pack

Ten cards of 2 of each pen & ink reproduction of the 5 churches in Tewksbury including the Zion Lutheran, Cokesbury Methodist, Fairmount Methodist, Fairmount Presbyterian and former Oldwick Methodist. Includes 10 envelopes

POST CARDS

$ 2 pack

These 8 reproduced post cards depict life in Tewksbury over 100 years ago. They show various buildings and scenes in and around Tewksbury. The post cards are legal postcards and can be mailed with proper USPS postage to send a note to a friend.

BOOKS

HISTORIC NOTES ON FAIRMOUNT, NJ* by Freeman Leigh

This reprinted 69 page book is currently the only compiled history of Tewksbury available and includes history of many of Tewksbury's villages and hamlets other than Fairmount. Originally published in 1926 and then edited by Jim Hamilton in 1982 and re-published, the Society obtained the rights to re-print it. It includes a complete index done in 2005 by Society Archivist Jean Rinehart.

Soft cover

$ 15

Hard cover

$ 25

Tewksbury Auto Tour Book

$ 10

Encyclopedia of New Jersey

$ 45

Mapping New Jersey

$ 35

T-SHIRTS

Tewksbury Art Show T-Shirt Sizes available: S, M, L or XL

$ 20

PRINTS

A River Runs Through Tewksbury by Elizabeth “Lib” Ryman is a pen and ink color drawing of Tewksbury roadway system with each road name listed as of 1999 and the Saw Mill Road stone-arch bridge as the main feature.

Available: Artist signed for $ 35 each and unsigned for $ 25 each

These color prints capture the very essence of Tewksbury, whether it’s our roadway system or individual villages. All done by local artists and reproduced for sale they look lovely in any home. All prints are limited edition and individually numbered.

Oldwick by Ann Reeves depicts the village via folk art

Pottersville by Linda Jean depicts Along the Allamatunk - Pottersville

Mountainville by Linda Jean depicts A Village in Tewksbury – Mountainville

Califon by Linda Jean Weber was done in 1993 for the Boro’s 75th anniversary

Available: $ 75 each;

Mountainville (artist proof) by Linda Jean depicts A Village in Tewksbury – signed by Charles Burrell - $ 125 each

New Germantown Beers Atlas (1870) Print, unframed - $ 15

Tewksbury Beers Atlas (1870) Print, unframed - $ 15

Pair of Prints, unframed - $ 25

Pair of Prints, framed - $ 50

All items are available for purchase at Society Headquarters.

Cash, Check, Visa or MasterCard accepted.

All items available for shipping – Additional charges apply. Call (908) 832-6734 or email tewksburyhistory@earthlink.net for details.

To order, complete the portion below and mail along with payment info.

Name _____ Phone _____

Items being purchased _____

Total enclosed _____ Credit Card # (Visa or Mastercard) _____

Exp. Date _____ Authorization code on card _____

Signature _____