

2025 TEWKSBURY ART SHOW & SALE

Sponsored by The Tewksbury Historical Society

2024 Best of Tewksbury
Oldwick, Tewksbury Township, NJ
January by Jinnie May

Welcome

to the Tewksbury Historical Society's 33rd Tewksbury Art Show and Sale. I hope that your visit with us to view, enjoy, and hopefully purchase one or more of the multitude of works from the many artists participating in this year's show is memorable. Our committee members have spent countless hours achieving the results you see here today. We always strive to improve the show each year and I hope you'll agree that we have done just that.

This year's show saw a record 144 artists enter our juried show – a first for our show with another record in that almost 30% of the artists are new, having never entered our show!

As you walk through the juried portion of the show do not forget that there are small works and portfolio pieces from these same artists who have successfully entered the show. Take the time to look at all these wonderful works of art. We hope you take at least one home with you.

The Tewksbury Historical Society recognizes the importance of art in the community. Artists help make our community a better place to live through their artwork. By supporting their efforts, we are helping to make things better in our own lives. Purchasing their art supports the artists and helps the Society to continue our programming. The results of the current fund-raising efforts of the Society will go toward the establishment of our permanent archives. Our mission is to preserve and disseminate the history of the Township of Tewksbury, Hunterdon County, New Jersey. A permanent archive will allow us to continue to fulfill our mission.

Your feedback is important to us. We would appreciate hearing your comments about the show. We always strive to improve the show; thus, any comments or thoughts are welcome. I can be reached by email at tewksburynjhstory@gmail.com.

My heartfelt thanks to all the art show committee members who have worked tirelessly to make this event a success.

A special thank you to all Society members and friends who contributed a sponsorship of the reception and event.

History of the Art Show

By Stephanie Koven, Member of The Tewksbury Historical Society

Cynthia McAdoo loved her home in Tewksbury Township. It was high on the top of Fox Hill Road overlooking the spectacular country of Oldwick, Lamington and beyond where she and her husband, Mac (Francis), raised their family, never to leave.

Things in and around Tewksbury began to change with time and the completion of Route 78 during the late seventies and early eighties. Farms started to break up and developers were slowly discovering this beautiful jewel made up of farms that had been in families for generations, as well as those found by people lucky enough to have discovered Tewksbury Township on their own: stone arch bridges; churches set in amazing, beautiful spaces; pretty, quaint villages; roads bordered by wild, orange daylilies following along the many streams; fields full of cows, sheep and horses; thick woods of huge trees filled with all kinds of wildlife; our own Hell Mountain; tons of history and great people!

Check out our Calendar of Events for talks on Tewksbury and various other subjects!

Lamington Presbyterian Church

Cynthia, an artist herself, had an idea to launch an art show and rally artists to paint scenes here in Tewksbury with the idea of saving these parts of our Township on canvas through art before it was lost forever. All this came together in 1989 when The Art Show was sponsored by Cynthia's church, the Lamington Presbyterian Church.

Then, in 1990, under Cynthia's guidance, it became The Tewksbury Historical Society Art Show, still held at the Lamington Presbyterian Church and chaired by Cynthia for three years. This first show (1990) was held for two days in mid-October with sixty-five artists entering ninety-eight works of which forty-two sold. There were two hundred and forty-four attendees! A grand reception was held on the first evening.

The Show moved to the Zion Lutheran Church Administration and School building on Church Street/Vliettown Road in November of 1993 and was extended to three days.

We had use of a nice space on the lower level of the old building. A door opened to a gravel parking lot where the entrance hall, meeting room and kitchen of the Zion Lutheran Church Christian Education Building (CEB) now stands. A small tent decorated with bittersweet around the top edges, pumpkins, baskets of apples and cherry chrysanthemums, welcomed guests along with hors d'oeuvres brought by members and the Society's famous strawberry punch!

The Show was expanded to four days in 1995 with two changes. It was our first Juried Show and it was to be themed.

Fairmount Presbyterian Church School House

The Fairmount Presbyterian Church School House became our home in 1996 and 1997 while the construction of the addition to the Zion's Christian Education Building in Oldwick was taking place. At this time we started to widen our scope to afford artists more freedom of subjects.

In 2005 the Show was dedicated to Marion Katnack, a former member of the Society who had co-chaired the Tewksbury Historical Society Art Show with her good friend and fellow teacher, Barbara Olsen. She was a long-time resident and beloved teacher at the Old Turnpike School. An award was established in her name in 2008 titled "Best Landscape in Tewksbury".

The Art Show continued along the same vein, however the idea of having a theme for each Show was dropped. Then in 2013 we lost Mary Elizabeth Young, who came from an old Tewksbury family and had chaired the Art Show, making so many of our Receptions special with her music. Year after year, she managed, somehow, to get her huge, beautiful and fragile harp in and out of her car, in and out of the CEB and play during the entire two hours while people wandered around looking at the paintings, small works and portfolios. That year the Show was dedicated to her.

We did not hold the Art Show in 2015 and 2016. It came back in 2017 with a new face! The Show began with a special “catered” Preview and Artist Reception on a Friday in late October/early November and continued through the next Saturday. It was a beautiful, huge success as it continues to be!

We were caught by Covid in 2020 but picked up on the same track in 2021 when sadly, we lost our wonderful, generous member and devoted treasurer of twenty-five years, Elsie Ehmann. Her husband Peter (P.J.) grew up in a very rural Tewksbury Township and this is where they wanted to stay and raise their children. Elsie and Peter were Charter Members of the Tewksbury Historical Society. Their magnificent barn was home not only to P.J.'s remarkable collection of cars but luckily, he was able to clear space for us to store large items used each year for the Art Show - exhibit panels, sandwich boards, signs and more, all of which are now stored in the Carriage House in Oldwick.

On to 2025 and with it brings several changes which have been challenging. Everyone is full of enthusiasm, working hard, having fun and looking forward once again to another beautiful Artist Reception and Show of fine paintings, small works and portfolios.

It's exciting and we're thrilled you've come!

Best of Tewksbury

In 2017 the Society began featuring a painting from a previous Show on the cover of the Show Journal and all collateral materials. In 2019 the painting which had won the 2018 "Best of Tewksbury" Award was featured on the 2019 Journal, flyers, cards and in publicity for the Show.

Each year the painting winning the "Best of Tewksbury" Award is now highlighted in the following year's journal cover.

2025 Juror: Leigh Zona

Leigh A. Zona is the Director of Communications and Development at The Center for Contemporary Art (The Center) located in Bedminster, NJ. Since 2016 he has been responsible for the management of rotating art exhibitions in The Center's three galleries, as well as their marketing and public relations.

Prior to The Center, Leigh served as the Gallery Director for J.M. Stringer Gallery, a fine arts gallery, formerly in Bernardsville, NJ. His time as Gallery Director included cultivating relationships with artists and clientele; exhibition installations; the promotion of exhibitions and special events; and the management of daily operations.

Leigh has spent more than thirty years as a non-profit arts administrator in both the visual and performing arts in New Jersey and New York, including on and off Broadway.

His passion for art has him searching for the next great find.

Art Mediums

In art, a medium* refers to the material or substance an artist uses to create a work of art. It can be a type of material, like paint, clay, or metal, or a technique like sculpture, printmaking, or watercolor painting. Essentially, it's what the artwork is made of and how it's made.

Water-based acrylic paint* is composed of pigment particles dispersed in an acrylic polymer emulsion. There are three main components in any acrylic paint - pigment, binder, and vehicle (water).

Oil paint* is a type of slow-drying paint that consists of particles of pigment suspended in a drying oil - commonly linseed oil. For several centuries, oil painting has been perhaps the most prestigious form of Western Art.

Watercolor* is a painting method in which the paints are made of pigments suspended in a water-based solution. Watercolor refers to both the medium and the resulting artwork.

Charcoal drawing* is an art technique that uses charred wood to create drawings. Charcoal is a black, crumbly material made from carbon used since the Renaissance.

Graphite* is a material made from crystalized carbon mixed with wax. It makes a mark when pressed or rubbed onto and dragged over paper or another surface.

Lithography is a planographic (relating to or denoting a printing process in which the printing surface is flat) method of printing originally based on the immiscibility (incapable of mixing) of oil and water. The printing is from a stone or metal plate with a smooth surface. A wax drawing is applied to one of the surfaces and linked to create the image by using a press.

Etching is an intaglio printmaking process in which lines or areas are incised using acid into a metal plate to hold the ink.

Photography* is the art and technology of capturing light to create images using a camera on a light-sensitive surface or digital sensor. The word "photography" comes from the Greek words for "light" and "drawing" or "writing," literally meaning to draw with light. It involves a process where a camera focuses light from an object onto a medium like film or a digital chip, which records the image.

Collage* from the French meaning to glue, describes the technique of composing an artwork by gluing a wide range of materials, such as pieces of paper, fabric, old photos, or newspaper clippings, to a surface.

Mixed Media* describes artwork in which more than one medium or material has been employed. Assemblages, collages, and sculpture are three common examples of art using different media.

Art Work* is a physical object that may have an aesthetic and/or conceptual value. This could be a painting, a sculpture, a photograph, an installation, a drawing, a collage as examples.

Artworks can be created with a very wide range of techniques. Many artists combine several techniques and mediums in their works.

Gouache* is an opaque watercolor, consisting of natural pigment, water, and a binding agent.

Silver Gelatin Prints are black and white prints in which the image consists of silver metal particles suspended in a gelatin layer.

Medium Sample Courtesy of Artist Jodi Topitz,*

Cyanotype Printing is a technique that involves laying a negative or objects on paper coated with a solution of iron salts before exposing to UV light.

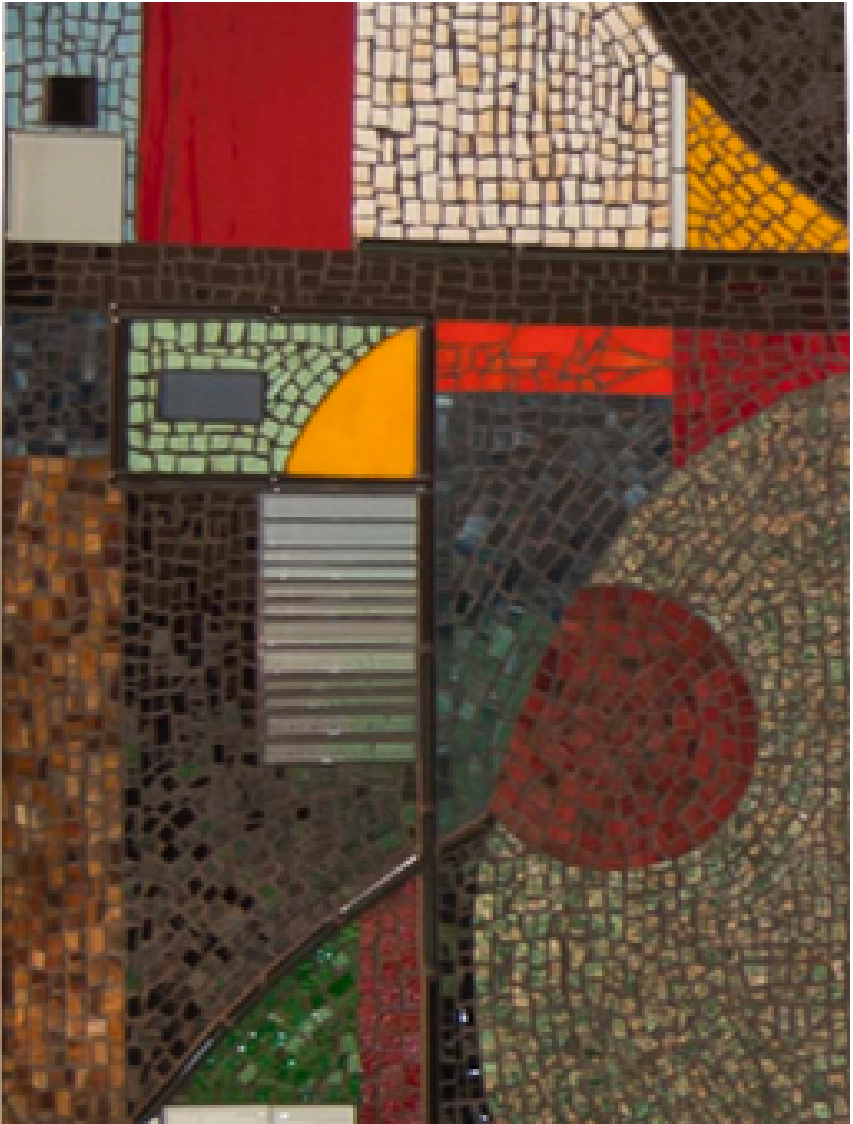

Encaustic painting, also known as hot wax painting, is a form of painting that involves a heated wax medium to which colored pigments have been added. The molten mix is applied to a surface—usually prepared wood, though canvas and other materials are sometimes used. The simplest encaustic medium is made by adding pigments to wax, though recipes most commonly consist of beeswax and damar resin, potentially with other ingredients.

Cold Wax Painting is any type of painting that heavily utilizes Cold Wax Medium into oil colors. In its own way, Cold Wax Painting blurs the line between oil painting and encaustic painting.

Cold Wax Medium is a dense paste, it is excellent in creating a variety of textures within a painting. It has a “short” characteristic and gives a clean break off of the brush or knife, retaining the sharp peaks of impasto.

These working properties allow for expressive brushmarks and the ability to carve into paint layers with palette knives. Cold Wax also gives oil colors a beautiful translucent quality, similar to the seductive surfaces of encaustic paintings. Cold Wax Painting utilizes experimental approaches, including the use of brayers, stencils, and textural elements such as bubble wrap or wire screens.

Mosaic* is a medium that creates patterns or images by arranging small, individual pieces of material—called tesserae—onto a surface with an adhesive. Materials can include glass, stone, ceramic, shells, or even recycled objects, and the tesserae are set into an adhesive-prepared surface to form a complete design

About Us

The Tewksbury Historical Society was founded in 1989 for the purpose of preserving and disseminating the history of the Township of Tewksbury. The Society is incorporated as an IRS 501(c)(3) non-profit and a registered New Jersey charity.

The Society's Headquarters is currently located at 60 Water Street in Mountainville in the original one-room Mountainville schoolhouse.

60 Water Street, Mountainville

5 James Street, Oldwick

The Society owns the Oldwick Carriage House at 5 James Street in Oldwick.

Originally a carriage house, it has been transformed into an artifact storage building and a host site for the Society's tag and holiday sales. In 2019 the Society purchased the property at 49 Old Turnpike Road in Oldwick, which has both a residential/commercial use building and a carriage barn on it. The first floor of the main building will be the future home of the Society in 2026-2027.

We love to share our history

The Society is focused on collecting documents, records, photos, artifacts, and the like that document Tewksbury's rich history, including items like 1800s store ledgers and 1900s scrapbooks, tax records, old maps, and band instruments. An Oral History program captures longtime residents on video to record their thoughts and memories of Tewksbury of yesteryear. Society Headquarters in Mountainville is open on select Saturdays from November to May and by appointment to conduct research.

In Memoriam - Joan A. Manning

We sadly note the passing of a great friend and supporter of the Tewksbury Art Show.

Joan A. Manning. Joan passed away on August 31, 2025. A long-time art lover and supporter, Joan will be remembered for her time in the Remember When gallery in Whitehouse Station, and later at the Manning Gallery in Lebanon. There she promoted artists by sponsoring one person shows for them and by championing their work. She enhanced all artistic works with her framing acumen and artistic perspective.

As a friend of the Tewksbury Art Show Joan was not only a benefactor who continuously supported the Show over many years, but was also always there to help us solve a variety of artwork emergencies that would arise during our shows.

We will miss her kind and generous presence.

THE TEWKSBURY HISTORICAL SOCIETY WISHES TO EXTEND OUR SINCERE APPRECIATION TO ALL THE BUSINESSES AND SPONSORS WHO SUPPORTED OUR 33RD ART SHOW. YOUR ONGOING PARTICIPATION ALLOWS US TO HOST THIS CHERISHED TEWKSBURY COMMUNITY EVENT!
